Annexure A – Details of Charges

This is with reference to your conduct of disobedience/ insubordination by not following legitimate instructions of the Company/ violation of Office Hours and Attendance policy.

The Company has been regularly communicating about the need to align to Company's hybrid work model. Accordingly, you have been informed that you are required to report for work at Mumbai office in line with Company's policies / guidelines and work from the office premises for the stipulated number of days.

However, we note that you have not been adhering to the office attendance communications, manager instructions and failing to report to office location and / or failing to attend the office for the stipulated number of days despite being advised multiple times.

Your aforesaid acts are viewed as willful insubordination and are in deliberate violation of Company's policies and the terms of your employment contract with the Company resulting in loss of confidence in you, hence being prejudicial to the interest of the Company. Please note that for the reasons stated above the Company will initiate disciplinary action against you, outcome of which may extend to termination of your employment.

You are, therefore, called upon to present yourself before the Disciplinary Committee scheduled to meet on July 11, 2024 to explain your actions.
