A beautiful day. - Last 40 days of my college

Today was a beautiful day, because since last 30 days I couldn't sleep well and was stressed with lots of thoughts. But this day when I got up it was exactly the time when my phone alarm rang and I was so happy because it happened after a very very long time, really feeling so fresh with mind and body. Don't know whether it was due to medicine which I took which have increased my dopamine secretion and inhibited serotonin or just by getting satisfied by talking to my friend.
Whatever be the reason I really thanks Allah Saw. for always being by my side and easing my problems.

I don't know how many times I thank Allah Saw, but I still pray he is always there with me.

So as usual, I got up drank water brushed my teeth, got fresh and ready for my new start of my day as it was a very special day for me. All were very excited me, through my friend and we reached St Joseph's school for the camp. After reaching school, all my old memories just clicked in front of my eyes remembering these old happy days. And I really miss my school days. And I think school life is the best life you get to live in your entire journey. Those small kids took all of my stress away from me. I was so excited to meet them. But out of all there was one girl who stole my heart and her name was 'Elisa'.

It was such a beautiful and a peaceful day. After completing my camp work, reached home. I prayed, ate, talked to my friend but I think I love him. But the only reason I am sad is him because he died. I just pray to Allah SAW, please make him acceptable for me. Ameen. Talking to him gives me tranquility and his voice makes me feel like talking to him, I love him with whole of my heart. Today I couldn't study because I got tired but soon I prayed for naqirib talked to my mom, had dinner got asleep. I don't know why some days are so restless and couldn't sleep but two days I am so sleepy, still. I am happy Alhamdulillah. Today wasn't much a peaceful day but still happy because my love, passion and devotion all met together. And overwhelmed with my profession.

For all of this, I love my mom and Dad always.

Thank Allah Saw. for making my each day go well and giving me strength to have patience.

Incoming of new thoughts - Last 39th day of my College.

Today I am glad that I don't over react over things. I have finally stopped getting to close to people. I got up at 8:15 am in the morning with new excitement of meeting small kids in school. Went to hospital, mess had breakfast and then back to camp. But I have started realizing that my best friend whom I used to think haven't been so friendly with me, her behaviour is so changed she gets rude over very small things and I hate being disrespected in front of others. In cab I was just thinking about her but then I stopped and thought when a person loves you won't hurt you and she could have said very politely. whatever, but after reaching school, we met a lots of kids so cute, some were chubby, some shy, and one who really took my heart and made me feel so special the chubby girl who said. "Thank you and so sweet of you" so politely and smiled with a blink of eyes. There was one more small cute little girl and a boy who made me smile. Then it was time to come back home so reached home at around 3'o clock, got fresh, ate fruits, prayed and slept as I was very sleepy. And then got up saw text of the new guy, but this time I have decided to be completely reserved. Then I prayed had dinner and slept. But I didn't talk to my parents because of my busy schedule. But it was really a fun day.

There is no surprise Mumbai is such a hot city. And today I woke up so early I don't know why I couldn't sleep so well at night though I talked to him well and I feel so good talking to him, he makes me feel so comfortable and protected, but I don't know why.
Then I tried sleeping but couldn't sleep and I was feeling insecure like someone is watching me. The dog outside the building was barking so loud and I got scared started praying and then he stopped. Then I started studying little bit so that I can fall asleep.
and after a hrs of struggles I slept got up early at 5'o clock in morning and slept again. Then I

I woke up at 9:30 am in morning. Like other day, I worked in the morning got freshen up ate. But after an hour I slept again may be because I didn't sleep the day before. I slept again by 10:00 and got up by 12:30 pm. And since then I just laid on my bed it was such a boring day, but still I was happy and relaxed, Masha Allah. It happens very rarely that I feel relaxed. The day went very smoothly a good day and then comes night, I got a call from a E. and then my friend. we talked and I felt very very happy because this talk was very different from the rest of the day and I really liked the way he talked to me, may be was super Today morning was so fast I couldn't even realise until it was 12:10 pm. and then I had to go for my lower Rx which I was very very excited for and had it done. I just hope everything goes well. After reaching home by 3:30 pm I was very sleepy but I was missing my friend very much, so called and talked to him. I don't know but whenever I talk I feel so relaxed. I just wish he allows me to sleep on call. I love being with him. Then I slept and got up at 8:00 when I received his call, I was so sleepy firstly I didn't get what, who is talking, and then got up, did nothing, had dinner and ready to sleep again.

Lastly, I thank Allah for always being with me.

I love you mummy and papa,
